Dear Prof. Michael Tuts,

I am pleased to inform you that your department has been included on a list of physics departments that conferred the largest number of undergraduate physics degrees. The list includes departments where a PhD was the highest degree offered and averaged 20 or more physics bachelor's in the classes of 2012, 2013, and 2014.

The list was compiled from data collected by the AIP in its annual AIP Enrollments and Degrees survey. You can find the list at:

www.aip.org/statistics/table6

You may want to share this information with your dean or public information office. If you have any questions or comments please contact me.

Sincerely
