"The Temperature of a Pure State"

We discuss how CFT correlators can be used to probe thermodynamics, providing derivations of the Hawking temperature of BTZ black holes and a "microscopic" derivation of the Cardy formula. Then we discuss how thermodynamic considerations suggest conjectural universality relations for an infinite set of CFT data.

Jared Kaplan, Johns Hopkins University